WHAT YOUR SCORES MEAN
You scored at Level 4. People achieving this level can identify main points, determine word meanings, including jargon, make inferences, and understand reason or cause and effect in complex spoken information.
To improve your skills:
* work on identifying relevant details that are not directly stated.
* practice determining the meaning of words, including jargon, based on few or no context clues.
* learn to make inferences about complex and abstract information.
* make sure you can identify the principles, policies, and/or generalizations implicit in spoken information.
